All Parade attendees, including guests, are reminded to observe the COVID-19 precautionary measures below which will be implemented strictly.

- Face mask must be worn at all times except while having meals and drinks in the designated locations and/or under instruction.
- Compulsory body temperature checks will be conducted. Any person with flu-like symptoms or with a body temperature above the reference range suggested by the Department of Health will not be admitted.
- Hands must be sanitized regularly and thoroughly, particularly before entering the canteen.
- The lunch arrangement and seating plan must be strictly followed.
- No food or drinks are allowed out of the canteen area / officers' mess / designated locations and/or without instruction.
- Scan the venue QR code by using "LeaveHomeSafe" mobile application upon entering AUX HQ (as Government Premises) unless otherwise being exempted*. Exempted persons will be asked to complete a record form to register their personal particulars, their contact numbers and the date and time of their visits, as required by AUX HQ.

* The persons exempted from the requirement of using the "LeaveHomeSafe" mobile application will be subject to the prevailing condition at the time as announced by the Government.

Depending on the public health requirements and guidelines at the time of the Parade, additional anti-pandemic measures may be implemented. The Organising Committee will announce any relevant changes prior to the Parade, if necessary.
