Special membership recruitment for HKACC members
To join the Royal Aeronautical Society - RAeS (Hong Kong Branch)

The Royal Aeronautical Society (RAeS), founded in 1866, currently the oldest professional body dedicated to the entire aerospace community, is headquartered in UK having an international network of 63 branches.

Formed in 1983, the RAeS (HK) is a regional embodiment of society representing a local pool of aeronautical expertise from different areas including the HKCAD, aircraft manufacturing, various airlines, aircraft maintenance engineering organizations, universities, and other supporting industries. Members of RAeS (HK) are definitely beneficial to widen their horizon in the aviation industry, get the latest aerospace information and expand their social network.

Highlights of RAeS (HK) activities are: (please also refer to <http://www.raes.org.hk>)

- Free monthly evening lectures
- Industrial tours
- Aviation Quiz
- Annual Dinner

You are invited to join the membership of the RAeS (HK)!

During the HKACC Athletic Meet 2011 (8 May 2011) held at the Shing Mun Valley Sports Ground, Tsuen Wan, a counter of RAeS (HK) will be setup to process your application on site! Please prepare a cheque made payable to "Royal Aeronautical Society (Hong Kong Branch)".

Membership fee:

- Full Member: $300 for 3-year membership
- Full-time Student Member: $150 for 3-year membership
