Hong Kong Service Leader Award

Invitation for Recommendations

Introduction

The Club of Central of the Rotary International (“Rotary Central”) is now inviting nominations from the thirteen uniformed youth groups as well as the Junior Police Call to be the candidates of the first “Hong Kong Service Leader Award” (“the Award”). To facilitate the nominations, we are now inviting all major unit commanders to recommend no more than two potential candidates aged between 18 to 30 and are considered worthy for the honour. Three successful candidates amongst your recommendations will be nominated by the Corps as the candidates of the Award.

The Award

One of the three candidates will be selected as the awardee to receive two thousand Hong Kong Dollars, a trophy, a certificate, a place in the leadership training programme as well as an overseas service trip organised by Rotary Central. The results of the award will be announced by Rotary Central in April 2014, the leadership training programme and the overseas service trip will be held from June to July 2014, and the award ceremony will be held in October 2014 where Dr W M KO BBS, JP will be the Guest of Honour.
