Recruitment of ITSU System Development Support Team
(The ITSU Tech Tacklers)

The Information Technology Service Unit (ITSU) is currently recruiting members to join our system development team, the "ITSU Tech Tacklers".

This is an excellent opportunity for the members to serve and learn under the leadership of our highly experienced IT specialists, and to contribute to the development of the Corps' new website and a mobile application system. The application system will systematically optimize the operational efficiency and management of our organization.

To be eligible, applicants must be active members of the Corps for at least 2 years and possess a good understanding of the administration and operation of their unit. Those with some knowledge in Python, HTML5, JavaScript, SQL Database, Flutter, and other scripts of equivalent to write systems and generate native or cross platform applications, will have an advantage.

Applicants may fill up the attached form and return it to ITSU via email, or register online through https://forms.gle/4yP8h8JBpUBfk4Ro8 (Google Form).

The application deadline is 3 May 2023, the time and place of candidate interviews will be announced in due course.

OC Units please disseminate this message and encourage your members to apply.

For any other enquiries, please feel free to contact ITSU via itsu@aircadets.org.hk.
