The Summer Training Camp 2024 (Team Spirit)

Open for Application

(Extension of Application Deadline)

The Summer Training Camp is one of the signature programmes of the Hong Kong Air Cadet Corps with a view to enhancing the leadership, interpersonal communication skills as well as self-discipline of the participants. Through carefully arranged camp activities, the participants will be placed in controlled situations where they will be challenged with tasks, exercises and scenarios as leaders and followers within teams made up of cadet members not just from across the Corps, but also from sister uniformed groups under disciplined services departments of the Security Bureau. By taking part in camp activities, participants will be expected to draw on what they learned in their past training, while acquiring new skills and friends in the process.
