

Ali Bowen-Davies MMus LRWCMD FGMS

Ali graduated from the Royal Welsh College of Music and Drama in 1993 with a Licentiate Diploma in Performance. She was awarded an International Scholarship from Northwestern University, Chicago and completed her Master of Music Degree under the tutelage of Ray Still in 1995. In 1996, she was awarded a Fellowship of the Guild of Musicians and Singers for her research and performance of English Chamber Music. She joined the Sea Cadet Corps as a Specialist Instructor and became part of the National Training Team in 1998. She was appointed Area Staff Officer (Bands) for Southern Area in 2002, Assistant Director of Music (Southern) for National Events in 2003 and successfully passed the Officer Selection Board in 2005. Ali taught for West Sussex Music Support Service and ran a successful teaching studio for ten years prior to joining CVQO in 2004 to develop their BTEC Music programme. In addition to working for CVQO, Ali enjoys a varied freelance career as an Orchestral, Chamber and session Musician.