City & Guilds Fellowship (Level 8)

It is announced that the Fellowship of the City and Guilds of London Institute (FCGI) welcomes applications.

FCGI is the highest award which can be conferred by the Institute, as authorised by its Royal Charter. The Fellowship provides an invaluable source of advice and support to C&G regionally, nationally and internationally. The award does not carry any specific demands or requirements, however Fellows' eminence and expertise helps to raise the profile and standards of practical craft, technical and business skills.

Members who are interested in this award are advised to read this memo and the appendices thoroughly before submitting their applications to City and Guilds (instead of CVQO).

Should you have any queries, please contact the undersigned at vqu@aircadets.org.hk.
